

SOCIAL WORK APPRENTICESHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Join us for a informational webinar!

Why a Collaborative Social Work Apprenticeship Program?

- Behavioral health workforce is shrinking
- Apprenticeships help build skilled talent
- "Earn while you learn" reduces financial barriers

What You'll Learn:

- Building an apprenticeship with Michigan Works!
- Defining job roles & training with a skills-based model
- Meeting apprenticeship guidelines
- Finding funding & employer support

Why Apprenticeships Work?

- Fills critical Medicaid-related roles
- Supports people with lived experience
- Offers an alternative path to career growth

Who Should Attend:

- Behavioral health providers
- Workforce development professionals
- Social service leaders

DATE

April 23rd, 2025

TIME

AT 10:00 AM

LINK

Microsoft Teams