

Upcoming Events

2026

Having knowledgeable and well-skilled teams is vital to delivering exceptional care. The MHA is proud to have a robust set of educational and training opportunities. As always, the MHA may continue to add offerings based on regulatory and industry needs. Please encourage team members to take advantage of these offers and continue to be aware of future events, webinars and educational opportunities.

A Tale of Three Health Systems: Their Mid-Revenue Cycle Insights and Road to Revenue Integrity

Gain insights from real-world case studies on clinical revenue cycle improvements.

- Date: Feb. 19
- Location: Virtual
- Who should attend: Chief financial officers, chief nursing officers and revenue cycle leaders.

Complying with the CMS Medical Staff and Telemedicine Conditions Webinar

This webinar will provide hospitals with timely guidance on Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) telehealth Conditions of Participation, including medical staff structures, credentialing requirements and key elements of compliant telemedicine agreements amid evolving federal policy.

- Date: March 3
- Location: Virtual
- Who should attend: Chief nurse executives and managers, compliance officers, Quality, safety and risk professionals.

The Four Myths of Workplace Violence

Real-world examples and practical insights on the often-overlooked realities of aggression and violence in today's healthcare workplace.

- Date: March 4
- Location: Virtual
- Who should attend: Healthcare leaders and professionals, security personnel and individuals responsible for creating a safe, empathetic and resilient workplace culture.

Registration details coming soon.

MI AIM Region 5 Hospitals Training Session

- Date: March 10
- Location: McLaren Bay Region Hospital
- Who should attend: In-patient healthcare providers for designated regions.

MAJOR MEETING

MHA Human Resources Conference

The 2026 MHA Human Resources Conference offers practical strategies for today's healthcare workforce challenges.

- Date: March 24
- Location: Crowne Plaza Lansing
- Who should attend: Chief human resource officers, human resource management and talent acquisition.

340B Regulatory Brief Webinar

340B regulatory updates.

- Date: April 23
- Location: Virtual
- Who should attend: CFO, directors of reimbursement and directors of pharmacy.

Registration
details
coming soon.

SAVE THE DATE

Graduate Medical Education (GME) Capitol Day

Michigan's physician residents from teaching hospitals and academic medical centers meet with legislators to discuss the vital importance of GME health professionals.

- Date: May 6
- Location: MHA Capitol Advocacy Center
- Who should attend: Physician residents, GME program administrators and directors.

Registration
details
coming soon.

MAJOR MEETING

2026 Annual Membership Meeting

Gathering hospital and health system leaders from across the state of Michigan to address challenges facing hospitals and the communities they serve.

- Date(s): June 24 – 26
- Location: Grand Hotel, Mackinac Island
- Who should attend: Hospital leadership and board of trustees.

MAJOR MEETING

2026 MHA Safety & Quality Symposium

An opportunity to convene healthcare leaders around advancing patient safety, care quality and workforce well-being.

- Date: Oct. 14
- Location: Double Tree by Hilton, Lansing
- Who should attend: Quality, safety and risk professionals, healthcare executives and person and family advocates.

Registration details coming soon.

SAVE THE DATE

2026 MHA Communications Retreat

A one-day professional development and networking event bringing together communications and marketing staff from hospitals and health systems across the state.

- Date: Oct. 21
- Location: MSUFCU Headquarters Building 2
- Who should attend: Communications, marketing and public relations professionals.

Registration details coming soon.